

Volunteer Role: Arts and Crafts Support

Organisation: Wild Earth Movement

Location: Mostly remote, with the occasional in person day if you would like

Commitment: Flexible

About Wild Earth Movement

Wild Earth Movement is an environmental organisation committed to empowering and inspiring communities to make positive changes for the planet. Through our infamous arts, crafts and messy play stations for both all ages we spark conversation around climate issues and protect the planet.

Role Overview

We would love a creative and organised volunteer to join our team to help us prepare materials for events and activities. This role is suitable for somebody who wants to help but doesn't have much time to give or somebody that wants to volunteer in their own time, flexibly. You would be preparing materials that can be used at events, cutting card, making demos of crafts we have planned and making sure we are always fully stocked on materials. You need to be trustworthy and able to collect materials from WEM HQ in Brierley Hill/ Stourbridge. The prep would need to be done in your own space and returned to WEM HQ ready to be used.

Key Responsibilities

- Prepare materials, ensuring they are environmentally friendly and suitable for the planned activities.
- Have an interest in reusing and recycling and be able to see art in things that would usually be thrown away
- Foster our no waste policy and really try to make the most of materials to avoid throwing things out
- Think of your own ideas and makes that would fit our ethos
- Ensure you communicate when materials are running low so we can restock
- Collect equipment and materials from our storage and return them

Skills and Qualities

- Creativity and enthusiasm for arts and crafts
- Organisational skills to manage materials
- Passion for sustainability and promoting eco-friendly practices

What We Offer

- A platform to share your creativity and inspire others
- The opportunity to contribute to environmental awareness through artistic expression.
- A chance to connect with a community of like-minded individuals.
- A wonderful team of people, social team days and celebrations.
